PRESENTATION BROTHERS

Forming Christ in the Young

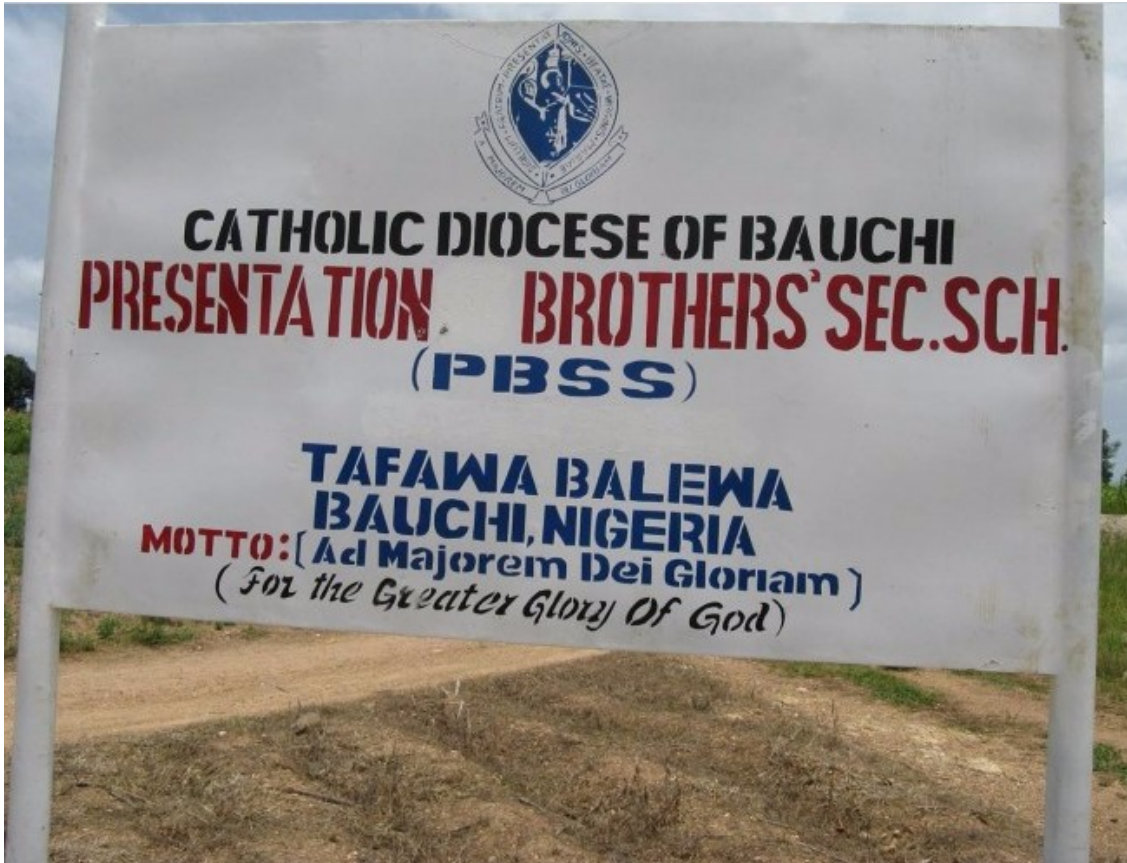

Welcome to the Presentation Brothers' Anglo-Irish Province e-letter! Remember, we can only share what we receive - so please do keep us up-to-date with events and stories from your part of the Presentation Family.

You can email us with anything you'd like to see included.

Michael Sexton is the new CEO of the Presentation Brothers Schools Trust (PBST), replacing Paul Scanlan. Michael, formerly the Principal in Coláiste an Spioraid Naoimh in Bishopstown, Cork, looks forward to further developing the already strong connections between the PBST and the other branches of the Presentation Family. He has already had a very productive meeting with Br Andrew, the Evangelisation Officer and the newly-appointed Youth Ministry Coordinator. Michael is in the process of visiting each of the PBST schools to familiarise himself with the varied group of primary and second-level schools, all united in a sense of common purpose where 'all are welcome, all are included, and all are enriched'. We wish Michael every success in his challenging new position and extend our best wishes to Paul for what, we hope, will be a long and very happy retirement.

PresLink in Presentation College Cork has combined with the Teachers Union of Ireland and a Scottish volunteer fundraiser resident in Dublin to successfully raise €5,500 to install a water supply at a large Presentation Brothers secondary school in Nigeria. Katie Hendrick, Student Welfare Officer at IADT in Dun Laoghaire, has raised funds through a series of events in Ireland and Scotland to sink a new borehole/tubewell to provide badly-needed clean water at the Presentation Brothers Secondary School in Tafawa Balewa in Bauchi State in northern Nigeria. The clean water provided at Tafawa Balewa will be used for drinking, cooking and washing.

Connections
